Additional Information	Malcolm and Mano have been hosting international students for the last 10 years. We are sensitive to their needs and interact with the students on a personal and caring level. The students are guided and taught about Melbourne and its culture so that they can learn to become independent. The accommodation is governed by a set of rules to ensure that the student's safety is addressed at all times irrespective of age. All our students are provided with an optimal learning environment. Students are encouraged to practice and improve their English skills during their stay. Mano Guy was born in Malaysia (of Chinese/Indian heritage) and holds a degree in psychology and business management. She is fully trained in first aid, occupational health and safety procedures and safe food handling. She enjoys cooking and gets great pleasure from hosting international students. Malcolm Guy was born in Australia and has worked extensively in senior management in Hong Kong and Taiwan. He has also owned and managed his own telecommunication business for 8 years in Melbourne. He is very familiar with the Asian culture and traditions and understands the sensitivity of international students when they arrive in a new country. He ensures that the accommodation rooms are well equipped and the students' needs are well-looked after. The accommodation is close to banks, post offices, Queen Elizabeth market, supermarkets, cafes, public transport, hospitals, medical clinics, pharmacies, library, gym, Melbourne Zoo and parklands. Annual police checks are conducted on both Malcolm and Mano and the reports forwarded to the appropriate schools.
